ACCELERATED DEATH BENEFIT RIDER DISCLOSURE

The benefit received under the rider may be taxable. Receipt of the accelerated death benefit may adversely affect your eligibility for Medicaid or other government benefits or entitlements. You should consult your personal tax advisor or the Social Security Administration before requesting the benefit.

This disclosure is a brief description of the Accelerated Death Benefit for Terminal Illness or Nursing Home Confinement Rider and its effects on your policy. This disclosure is not an insurance contract, but only a summary of the coverage provided by the rider. There is no premium or cost of insurance charge for the rider.

BENEFIT DESCRIPTION

While the rider is in force and the insured has a terminal illness or is under nursing home confinement, you may elect to receive the accelerated death benefit before the insured dies. A terminal illness is a medical condition that will result in the insured's death within 12 months. Nursing home confinement means that the insured has been confined to a nursing home for at least 90 consecutive days and is expected to remain confined for the remainder of his or her life. A physician must certify that the insured has a terminal illness or is under nursing home confinement.

The amount available for the accelerated death benefit is your policy's death benefit. You may receive the accelerated death benefit only once.

For a terminal illness, we will reduce the accelerated death benefit by 6%.

For nursing home confinement, we will reduce the accelerated death benefit by the nursing home confinement factor. The nursing home confinement factor varies by policy year as shown in the rider. We will also reduce the accelerated death benefit by a $100 charge and by the amount of any loans and unpaid premiums.

EFFECT OF THE ACCELERATED DEATH BENEFIT ON THE POLICY

The rider will terminate when the accelerated death benefit is paid.

NOTE: If the policy is issued as a graded death benefit, the accelerated death benefit is not available.

ACCELERATED DEATH BENEFIT RIDER DISCLOSURE

The benefit received under the rider may be taxable. Receipt of the accelerated death benefit may adversely affect your eligibility for Medicaid or other government benefits or entitlements. You should consult your personal tax advisor or the Social Security Administration before requesting the benefit.

This disclosure is a brief description of the Accelerated Death Benefit for Terminal Illness or Nursing Home Confinement Rider and its effects on your policy. This disclosure is not an insurance contract, but only a summary of the coverage provided by the rider. There is no premium or cost of insurance charge for the rider.

While the rider is in force and the insured has a terminal illness or is under nursing home confinement, you may elect to receive the accelerated death benefit before the insured dies. A terminal illness is a medical condition that will result in the insured's death within 12 months. Nursing home confinement means that the insured has been confined to a nursing home for at least 90 consecutive days and is expected to remain confined for the remainder of his or her life. A physician must certify that the insured has a terminal illness or is under nursing home confinement.

The amount available for the accelerated death benefit is your policy's death benefit. You may receive the accelerated death benefit only once.

For a terminal illness, we will reduce the accelerated death benefit by 6%.

For nursing home confinement, we will reduce the accelerated death benefit by the nursing home confinement factor. The nursing home confinement factor varies by policy year as shown in the rider. We will also reduce the accelerated death benefit by a $100 charge and by the amount of any loans and unpaid premiums.

EFFECT OF THE ACCELERATED DEATH BENEFIT ON THE POLICY

The rider will terminate when the accelerated death benefit is paid.

NOTE: If the policy is issued as a graded death benefit, the accelerated death benefit is not available.

RHODE ISLAND INSTRUCTIONS – begin using immediately.

Rhode Island law now requires that producers make certain disclosures to an insurance customer at the time of sale. Disclosures are required for all product lines. For your convenience, we have created a Disclosure Form that you may use. The disclosures must be completed at the time of taking the product application. We recommend that you use this or an alternative form and keep a completed copy of it in your files. Rhode Island law defines "affiliate" as a person that controls, is controlled by or is under common control with the producer. For purposes of this disclosure, "compensation" means payments, commissions, fees, overrides, bonuses, contingent commissions, loan, stock options, gifts, prizes or any other form of valuable consideration, whether or not payable pursuant to a written agreement. If you receive compensation from the customer, you are required to provide a description of the method and factors utilized for calculating the compensation to be received from the insurer or other third-party for that placement. Please be sure to include any first year and renewal commission, bonus opportunity, incentive travel opportunity, etc.

Replacement of Life Insurance or Annuities

A replacement may not be in your best interest, or your decision could be a good one. You should make a careful comparison of the costs and benefits of your existing policy or contract and the proposed policy or contract. One way to do this is to ask the company or agent that sold you your existing policy or contract to provide you with information concerning your existing policy or contract. This may include an illustration of how your existing policy or contract is working now and how it would perform in the future based on certain assumptions. Illustrations should not, however, be used as a sole basis to compare policies or contracts. You should discuss the following with your agent to determine whether replacement or financing your purchase makes sense:

Premiums:

- Are they affordable?
- Could they change?
- You're older—are premiums higher for the proposed new policy?
- How long will you have to pay premiums on the new policy? On the old policy?

Policy Values:

- New policies usually take longer to build cash values and to pay dividends.
- Acquisition costs for the old policy may have been paid; you will incur costs for the new one.
- What surrender charges do the policies have?
- What expense and sales charges will you pay on the new policy?
- Does the new policy provide more insurance coverage?

Insurability:

- If your health has changed since you bought your old policy, the new one could cost you more, or you could be turned down.
- You may need a medical exam for a new policy.
- Claims on most new policies for up to the first two years can be denied based on inaccurate statements.
- Suicide limitations may begin anew on the new coverage.

If you are keeping the old policy as well as the new policy:

- How are premiums for both policies being paid?
- How will the premiums on your existing policy be affected?
- Will a loan be deducted from death benefits?
- What values from the old policy are being used to pay premiums?

If you are surrendering an annuity or interest sensitive life product:

- Will you pay surrender charges on your old contract?
- What are the interest rate guarantees for the new contract?
- Have you compared the contract charges or other policy expenses?

Other issues to consider for all transactions:

- What are the tax consequences of buying the new policy?
- Is this a tax-free exchange? (See your tax advisor.)
- Is there a benefit from favorable "grandfathered" treatment of the old policy under the federal tax code?
- Will the existing insurer be willing to modify the old policy?
- How does the quality and financial stability of the new company compare with your existing company?

Important Notice:
Replacement of Life Insurance or Annuities

You are contemplating the purchase of a life insurance policy or annuity contract. In some cases this purchase may involve discontinuing or changing an existing policy or contract. If so, a replacement is occurring. Financed purchases are also considered replacements.

A replacement occurs when a new policy or contract is purchased and, in connection with the sale, you discontinue making premium payments on the existing policy or contract, or an existing policy or contract is surrendered, forfeited, assigned to the replacing insurer, or otherwise terminated or used in a financed purchase.

A financed purchase occurs when the purchase of a new life insurance policy involves the use of funds obtained by the withdrawal or surrender of or by borrowing some or all of the policy values, including accumulated dividends, of an existing policy, to pay all or part of any premium or payment due on the new policy. A financed purchase is a replacement.

You should carefully consider whether a replacement is in your best interest. You will pay acquisition costs and there may be surrender costs deducted from your policy or contract. You may be able to make changes to your existing policy or contract to meet your insurance needs at less cost. A financed purchase will reduce the value of your existing policy and may reduce the amount paid upon the death of the insured.

We want you to understand the effects of replacements before you make your purchase decision and ask that you answer the following questions and consider the questions on this form.

1. Are you considering discontinuing making premium payments, surrendering, forfeiting, assigning to the insurer, or otherwise terminating your existing policy or contract? ..... ❑ YES ❑ NO
2. Are you considering using funds from your existing policies or contracts to pay premiums due on the new policy or contract? ..... ❑ YES ❑ NO
3. If purchasing an annuity, have you had another annuity exchange or replacement within the past 60 months? ❑ YES ❑ NO

If you answered "yes" to any of the above questions, list each existing policy or contract you are contemplating replacing (include the name of the insurer, the insured or annuitant, and the policy or contract number if available) and whether each policy or contract will be replaced or used as a source of financing:

Insurer Name	Contract or Policy #	Insured or Annuitant	Replaced (R) or Financing (F)

Make sure you know the facts. Contact your existing company or its agent for information about the old policy or contract. If you request one, an in-force illustration, policy summary or available disclosure documents must be sent to you by the existing insurer. Ask for and retain all sales material used by the agent in the sales presentation. Be sure that you are making an informed decision.
