ACCELERATED DEATH BENEFIT RIDER DISCLOSURE

The benefit received under any accelerated death benefit rider may be taxable. Receipt of the benefit may adversely affect your eligibility for Medicaid or other government benefits or entitlements. You should consult your personal tax advisor or the Social Security Administration before requesting an accelerated death benefit.

DISCLOSURE FOR TERM LIFE INSURANCE POLICIES

If you are applying for term life insurance benefits, this disclosure is a brief description of the Accelerated Death Benefit for Terminal Illness Rider and its effects on your policy. This disclosure is not an insurance contract, but only a summary of the coverage provided by the rider. There is no premium charge for the rider.

BENEFIT DESCRIPTION

If the Insured is diagnosed as having a Terminal Illness while the policy is in force, you may make a one-time election to receive an accelerated death benefit up to $1,000,000 or 80% of the policy's death benefit, whichever is less. A Terminal Illness is a medical condition that, within a reasonable degree of certainty, will result in the Insured's death within 12 months or less from the date a physician signs the statement of proof of terminal illness.

We will reduce the Terminal Illness benefit by an actuarial discount rate and a $100 charge. The actuarial discount rate will not be greater than 6%.

EFFECT OF THE ACCELERATED DEATH BENEFIT ON THE POLICY

When we pay the accelerated death benefit, the policy will continue with a reduced face amount and a reduced premium.

DISCLOSURE FOR UNIVERSAL LIFE INSURANCE POLICIES

If you are applying for universal life insurance benefits, this disclosure is a brief description of the Accelerated Death Benefit for Terminal Illness Rider, the Accelerated Death Benefit for Chronic Illness Rider, and their effects on your policy. This disclosure is not an insurance contract, but only a summary of the coverage provided by the riders. There is no premium or cost of insurance for these riders. The Accelerated Death Benefit for Chronic Illness Rider is not available when the Long-Term Care Benefits Rider is issued.

BENEFIT DESCRIPTION - ACCELERATED DEATH BENEFIT FOR TERMINAL ILLNESS RIDER

If the insured is diagnosed as having a Terminal Illness while the policy is in force, you may make a one-time election to receive an accelerated death benefit. The sum of all requested accelerations under the Terminal Illness Rider and the Chronic Illness Rider may not exceed the lesser of $1,000,000 or 80% of the specified amount as of the date of the first requested acceleration.

A Terminal Illness is a medical condition that, within a reasonable degree of medical certainty, will result in the insured's death within 12 months or less from the date a physician signs the statement of proof of terminal illness.

We will reduce the Terminal Illness benefit by an actuarial discount rate and a $100 charge, and the pro-rated amount of any outstanding loans. The actuarial discount rate will not be greater than 6%.

BENEFIT DESCRIPTION - ACCELERATED DEATH BENEFIT FOR CHRONIC ILLNESS RIDER - (THIS RIDER IS NOT AVAILABLE WHEN THE LONG-TERM CARE BENEFITS RIDER IS ISSUED.)

If the insured is diagnosed as being Chronically Ill while the policy is in force, you may elect to receive an accelerated death benefit.

Chronically Ill means that within the last 12 months a physician has certified that for a continuous period of at least 90 days, the insured is: (a) unable to perform (without substantial assistance from another person) at least two activities of daily living; or (b) requires substantial supervision to protect himself or herself from threats and safety due to severe cognitive impairments.

The sum of all requested accelerations may not exceed the lesser of $1,000,000 or 80% of the specified amount as of the date of the first requested acceleration. Each requested acceleration may not exceed the per diem allowance permitted by section 101(g)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code multiplied by the number of days in the current calendar year that the insured is expected to be Chronically Ill. The Internal Revenue Service announces the per diem limit for each calendar year.

You may elect to receive the Chronic Illness benefit more than once, and there must be at least 12 months between acceleration requests. In contrast, you may elect to receive the Terminal Illness benefit only once. If you elect to receive the Terminal Illness benefit, the Chronic Illness benefit is no longer available.

We will reduce the Chronic Illness benefit by an actuarial discount rate multiplied by the insured's life expectancy in years, a $100 charge, and the pro-rated amount of any outstanding loans.

EFFECT OF THE ACCELERATED DEATH BENEFIT ON THE POLICY

When we pay any accelerated death benefit, the following will occur: (a) we will reduce the specified amount, accumulation value, and any loan by the same proportion as the death benefit; and (b) the monthly deduction and cost of insurance charge will be based on the reduced specified amount.

Blood-Borne Pathogen Test Informed Consent Form

Mutual of Omaha Insurance Company
United of Omaha Life Insurance Company

To evaluate your insurability, the insurer named above (the insurer) has requested that you provide a sample of your blood and/or other bodily fluids for testing and analysis to determine the presence of human immunodeficiency virus (HIV), Hepatitis B and Hepatitis C antibodies. By signing and dating this form, you agree that this test may be done and that underwriting decisions will be based on the test results. A series of tests will be performed by a licensed laboratory using a medically accepted procedure.

Meaning of Blood-Borne Pathogen Test Results

HIV antibody: A positive test means you have been exposed to the HIV virus, the causative agent for AIDS. It means that you are at increased risk for developing AIDS or AIDS-related conditions. Federal authorities view that HIV positive individuals should be considered infected with the AIDS virus, and are capable of infecting others. A positive test result may cause you significant anxiety. The result will adversely affect your insurance application.

Hepatitis B or Hepatitis C antibody: A positive test means you have been exposed to Hepatitis B or Hepatitis C virus. It means you may or may not have an active hepatitis (liver) infection. You will need further medical evaluation to determine if you are infectious to others, and if you need treatment. A positive test result may cause you anxiety. The result may adversely affect your insurance application.

Confidentiality of Test Results

All test results are required to be treated confidentially. They will be reported by the laboratory to the insurer. The test results may be disclosed to employees of the insurer who have the responsibility to make underwriting decisions on their behalf or to outside legal counsel who needs such information to effectively represent them in regard to your application. The results may be disclosed to a reinsurer, if the reinsurer is involved in the underwriting process. A generic code which signifies only a nonspecific test abnormality may be reported to the Medical Information Bureau (MIB, Inc.), if the results are other than normal.

Notification of Test Results

If your test results are negative, no routine notification will be sent to you. If your test results are indicative of infection with a blood-borne pathogen, you may designate a health care provider or health care agency to whom the insurer will provide test results indicative of infection with a blood-borne pathogen for interpretation.

A Summary of Your Rights Under the Fair Credit Reporting Act

The federal Fair Credit Reporting Act (FCRA) promotes the accuracy, fairness, and privacy of information in the files of consumer reporting agencies. There are many types of consumer reporting agencies, including credit bureaus and specialty agencies (such as agencies that sell information about checkwriting histories, medical records, and rental history records). Here is a summary of your major rights under the FCRA. For more information, including information about additional rights, go to www.consumerfinance.gov/learnmore or write to: Consumer Financial Protection Bureau, 1700 G Street N.W., Washington, D.C. 20552.

- You must be told if information in your file has been used against you. Anyone who uses a credit report or another type of consumer report to deny your application for credit, insurance, or employment – or to take another adverse action against you – must tell you, and must give you the name, address, and phone number of the agency that provided the information.
- You have the right to know what is in your file. You may request and obtain all the information about you in the files of a consumer reporting agency (your “file disclosure”). You will be required to provide proper identification, which may include your Social Security number. In many cases, the disclosure will be free. You are entitled to a free file disclosure if:
 - a person has taken adverse action against you because of information in your credit report;
 - you are the victim of identity theft and place a fraud alert in your file;
 - your file contains inaccurate information as a result of fraud;
 - you are on public assistance;
 - you are unemployed but expect to apply for employment within 60 days.
- In addition, by September 2005 all consumers will be entitled to one free disclosure every 12 months upon request from each nationwide credit bureau and from nationwide specialty consumer reporting agencies. See www.consumerfinance.gov/learnmore for additional information.
- You have the right to ask for a credit score. Credit scores are numerical summaries of your credit-worthiness based on information from credit bureaus. You may request a credit score from consumer reporting agencies that create scores or distribute scores used in residential real property loans, but you will have to pay for it. In some mortgage transactions, you will receive credit score information for free from the mortgage lender.
- You have the right to dispute incomplete or inaccurate information. If you identify information in your file that is incomplete or inaccurate, and report it to the consumer reporting agency, the agency must investigate unless your dispute is frivolous. See www.consumerfinance.gov/learnmore for an explanation of dispute procedures.
- Consumer reporting agencies must correct or delete inaccurate, incomplete, or unverifiable information. Inaccurate, incomplete or unverifiable information must be removed or corrected, usually within 30 days. However, a consumer reporting agency may continue to report information it has verified as accurate.
- Consumer reporting agencies may not report outdated negative information. In most cases, a consumer reporting agency may not report negative information that is more than seven years old, or bankruptcies that are more than 10 years old.
- Access to your file is limited. A consumer reporting agency may provide information about you only to people with a valid need – usually to consider an application with a creditor, insurer, employer, landlord, or other business. The FCRA specifies those with a valid need for access.
- You must give your consent for reports to be provided to employers. A consumer reporting agency may not give out information about you to your employer, or a potential employer, without your written consent given to the employer. Written consent generally is not required in the trucking industry. For more information, go to www.consumerfinance.gov/learnmore.
- You may limit “prescreened” offers of credit and insurance you get based on information in your credit report. Unsolicited “prescreened” offers for credit and insurance must include a toll-free phone number you can call if you choose to remove your name and address from the lists these offers are based on. You may opt-out with the nationwide credit bureaus at 1-888-567-8688.
- You may seek damages from violators. If a consumer reporting agency, or, in some cases, a user of consumer reports or a furnisher of information to a consumer reporting agency violates the FCRA, you may be able to sue in state or federal court.

- Identity theft victims and active duty military personnel have additional rights. For more information, visit www.consumerfinance.gov/learnmore.

States may enforce the FCRA, and many states have their own consumer reporting laws. In some cases, you may have more rights under state law. For more information, contact your state or local consumer protection agency or your state Attorney General. For information about your federal rights contact:

CAUTION: The insurance commissioner suggests you consider these points.

Usually, contestable and suicide periods start again under a new policy. Benefits might be excluded under a new policy that would be paid under existing insurance.

Termination or altering existing coverage, before new insurance has been issued, might leave you unable to purchase other life insurance or let you buy it only at substantially higher rates.

You are entitled to advice from the existing insurance producer or company. Such advice might be helpful.

Study the comments made above by the insurance producer. They apply to you and this proposal. They are important to you and your future.
